BALANCE TRANSFERS

If you are issued a credit card, you authorize us to make one or more of the balance transfers that you have requested from credit card accounts or other types of accounts with other financial institutions. Balance Transfers cannot be used to pay off or pay down any Union Bank credit card, either opened in your name or any other person. All balance transfer requests are subject to our approval; we are not liable if we do not make a requested balance transfer. We reserve the right to make balance transfers in the order we select and to limit the amount of the balance transfers that we make (this amount may be less than your total credit limit). This might not happen until after the balance transfer appears on your billing statement from us. You are liable for any late payments, finance charges or disputed amounts on your other accounts. We do not send instructions to the other financial institution to close your other account. If you want the other account to be closed, you must do that yourself. Balance transfers are subject to applicable fees and finance charges and do not have the benefit of a grace period. If you take advantage of a balance transfer offer and continue to use the credit card to make purchases, you will lose the interest-free grace period on the new purchases unless you pay the entire statement balance, including the amount subject to the promotional APR, by the payment due date.

SECURITY INTEREST IN THE COLLATERAL ACCOUNT

As a condition to opening and maintaining a credit card account, you will be required to open and maintain a deposit account with us to hold the funds you have provided as collateral (the "Collateral Account"). The balance in the Collateral Account must at all times equal at least the amount of the credit line on your credit card account. At the time the Collateral Account is opened, we will provide you with the terms and conditions governing the Collateral Account and all related disclosures (the "Collateral Account Agreement"). In the event of a conflict between the terms and conditions in this section and those of the Collateral Account Agreement, these terms and conditions will apply with respect to the Collateral Account. You grant us a security interest in the Collateral Account and in all additions to and proceeds of the Collateral Account. Our interest in the Collateral Account secures your promise to pay for all transactions on the credit card account and any interest, fees and other amounts that you owe us under the credit card account. You agree that, until all amounts owed under the credit card account have been fully paid and the account has been closed (a) you may not withdraw any funds from the Collateral Account, (b) you may not create or permit any other lien or security interest in the Collateral Account or transfer any other interest in the Collateral Account for any reason, (c) any attempt to give a security interest or transfer any other interest in the Collateral Account will be ineffective and void, and (d) you may not close the Collateral Account.

We may, in our discretion, close the Collateral Account at any time. Before closing your Collateral Account, we will give you any notice required by law or the Collateral Account Agreement. If any person other than us seeks to assert an interest in the Collateral Account, we may deem the account balance immediately payable and apply the funds in the Collateral Account to your outstanding account balance. We may use the funds in the Collateral Account to pay any balances on your credit card account. You agree that if the credit card account issued to you by us is closed for any reason, we may apply the funds in this Collateral Account to pay off any balance on the credit card account. If the credit card account is closed for any reason, whether by you or us, we may hold funds in this Collateral Account for a minimum holding period of sixty days after the credit card account balance is paid in full and the credit card account is closed in order to cover any transactions, fees or charges that may be posted to the credit card account after it is closed. If any funds remain in the Collateral Account after the credit card account balance is paid, we will send the remaining funds to you in the manner provided by the Collateral Account Agreement. If the Collateral Account is closed or funds are withdrawn prior to any stated maturity date, we may assess an early withdrawal penalty as described in the Collateral Account Agreement. Please refer to your Collateral Account Agreement for complete details regarding penalties for early withdrawals.

The foregoing security interest in the Collateral Account is in addition to, and does not impair or affect, any waiver of any set off or other rights that we have or may have, now or hereafter, with respect to the Collateral Account.

OVERDRAFT PROTECTION LINKED TO A UNION BANK CREDIT CARD

Service is limited to covering one personal checking account linked to one personal Union Bank credit card, and both accounts must have a common owner.

By enrolling in Overdraft Protection Linked to a Union Bank Credit Card, you authorize the Bank to make advances on your Union Bank Credit Card (subject to your available credit) in order to cover transactions (including transfers between checking, money market, and savings accounts) presented for payment against insufficient funds. We will not authorize transactions requiring real-time authorization (such as ATM withdrawals, ATM or Debit Card purchases, and cash withdrawals in a Union Bank branch) using this service. If you attempt a transaction requiring real-time authorization and there are insufficient available funds in the linked checking account, the transaction will be declined. Activation of the Overdraft Protection service may take up to 5 business days following the approval of a new credit card account; for customers with an existing open credit card account, it may take up to 5 business days from the initial request to enroll in the Overdraft Protection service.

Each business day that we determine that your linked checking account is overdrawn by any amount, you authorize us to make an Overdraft Advance equal to a) $50, or b) the next highest multiple of $50 that will equal or exceed the linked checking account overdraft, as determined by us. For example, if we determine that your linked checking account is overdrawn by $125, you understand and agree that we may automatically make an Overdraft Advance of $150 from your Union Bank Credit Card for deposit to your linked checking account. We will make advances only once each business day.

Advances will only be processed if at least one transaction can be covered by the advanced amount. Any negative balance from a previous business day will not trigger an advance unless another eligible transaction is presented for payment and there is sufficient available credit on the credit card account to cover at least that additional transaction. If you do not have sufficient available credit on your credit card account to cover all transactions, your linked checking account may be subject to fees for any uncovered transactions. The total advance amount will appear on the linked checking account statement each day an advance is made. Only one checking account may be linked to one credit card account, and both accounts must have a common owner. If your linked checking account is charged to a closed status for any reason, Union Bank may terminate the Overdraft Protection Linked to a Union Bank Credit Card service without notice.

Overdraft Advances and the $10 daily Overdraft Advance Fee will be added to your Overdraft Advance Balance Category on your credit card monthly statement and be charged the Overdraft Advance Annual Percentage Rate. Your APR will be 20.49%. This APR will vary with the market based on the Prime Rate. No grace period will apply when calculating finance charges for Overdraft Advances. If your linked credit card account is changed to a closed status for any reason, Union Bank may terminate the Overdraft Protection Linked to a Union Bank Credit Card service without notice. You may cancel this service at any time.

Some accounts may not be eligible for Overdraft Protection Linked to a Union Bank Credit Card. For more information, see the Union Bank Personal Accounts & Services Disclosure and Agreement.
