Agreement And Disclosure Of Credit Card Terms

- 1. Words Used Often in This Agreement. "Agreement" means this Security Service Federal Credit Union Credit Card Agreement. "We," "us" and "our" mean Security Service Federal Credit Union. "You" and "your" mean the person who signed an application for an account with us. If more than one person signed the application, "you" and "your" mean each person who signed the application. "Account" means your credit card account with us. "Card" means the credit card issued to you for your account with us. If we issue more than one credit card to you, "card" includes each credit card issued to you. "ATM" means automated teller machine.
- 2. This Is Your Contract with Us. You have submitted an application for an account with us. By using or permitting another to use your card(s), you are accepting the terms of this agreement and agreeing to keep all your promises to us contained in this agreement.
- 3. Sign the Card and Keep This Agreement. You must sign the card before you use it. You should read this agreement and keep it for your records.
- 4. Military Lending Act – Federal law provides important protections to members of the Armed Forces and their dependents relating to extensions of consumer credit. In general, the cost of consumer credit to a member of the Armed Forces and his or her dependent may not exceed an annual percentage rate of 36 percent. This rate must include, as applicable to the credit transaction or account: The costs associated with credit insurance premiums; fees for ancillary products sold in connection with the credit transaction; any application fee charged (other than certain application fees for specified credit transactions or accounts); and any participation fee charged (other than certain participation fees for a credit card account).

In the event the Military Lending Act applies to an SSFCU product or service, then notwithstanding any other term or condition in such product or service, such product or service insofar as it applies to the covered borrower, (1) shall not contain any arbitration provision, (2) shall only be subject to setoff or cross-collateralization as is allowed by law, and (3) all legal notices shall be provided in accordance with the law of the applicable jurisdiction.

If you are a covered borrower under the Military Lending Act you are entitled by law to an oral disclosure of your loan terms. If you would like to hear that disclosure, please call 1-866-452-6945.
- 5. Promise to Pay. You promise to pay us the amount of all purchases, cash advances and balance transfers that you make using the card and all other charges, including the interest charge incurred under this agreement. Each use of the card at an ATM to obtain cash is a cash advance. If you allow any person to use the card, you must pay for their purchases, cash advances, balance transfers and other charges, too.
- 6. Promise to Pay Applies to All Applicants. If more than one person signed the application, each of you promises to pay all amounts owed to us under this agreement. This means that we may collect money owed to us from each of you or from all of you.
- 7. Your Credit Limit. We will tell you the maximum amount you may owe us at any one time. That amount is your credit limit. We may, in our sole discretion, allow additional borrowing if you are already up to your credit limit or if the borrowing would take you over your credit limit.
- 8. Monthly Statement and Payments. We will send you a statement each month if your account has a balance. We will send you one statement for all cards issued with your account number. If more than one person signed the application, we will send the statement to the first person listed on the application. Each statement covers a billing cycle. A billing cycle is the number of days from the day after the "statement date" on your last statement to the "statement date" on your current statement.

Security Service Power Mastercard®

Your monthly statement will show your new balance, which is the total amount you owe us as of the statement date. It will also show the minimum payment. Your minimum payment will be either $20.00 or 2% of the new balance, rounded up to the nearest dollar, whichever is greater. If your new balance is less than $20.00, your minimum payment will be the amount of the new balance. You must pay at least the minimum payment by the payment due date shown on your statement. The payment due date for a billing period will be 25 days after the billing period ends. You may pay the new balance in full or in part at any time. If you pay more than the minimum payment, you will still have a minimum payment due on the next statement.

- 9. Other Payment Terms. All your payments to us must be in U.S. dollars. All checks and other payment instruments or automatic debits must be drawn on funds on deposit in the United States. We can accept partial or late payments, as well as payments that are marked with "paid in full" or any other similar language without losing any of our rights under this agreement. Payments made to your account will be allocated in the following manner:
- Unpaid interest charges
 - Fees and penalties
 - Balances with the highest APR

- 10. Periodic Interest Rate Determination. Periodic Rates (Variable Rate). The Monthly Periodic Rate applied to the balance subject to an interest charge for both purchases and cash advances will be a floating rate based upon an index. However, regardless of the index value, the effective Annual Percentage Rate corresponding to the Monthly Periodic Rate will never exceed EIGHTEEN PERCENT (18%), which is called the "Maximum Annual Percentage Rate".
- The index used to calculate the periodic rate is the "prime rate" as published in the Money Rates table of the Wall Street Journal. The index value used for a given billing cycle will be the value published on the last day of your previous billing cycle. If the index is not published that day, the most recently published value before that day will be used to determine the Monthly Periodic Rate. If more than one prime rate is published, the index will be the highest rate published. If the Wall Street Journal ceases as a publication, we may use the prime rate published by any other newspaper or general circulation. If the Annual Percentage Rate increases, your periodic payment amount may increase.
 - Depending on your creditworthiness, we will add 4.24, 6.24, or 13.49 percentage points to the index value to get the Annual Percentage Rate that will apply to your respective account for the next billing cycle. Then, the Annual Percentage Rate for the billing cycle will be divided by 12 to get the Monthly Periodic Rate for the billing cycle.
 - In the event the effective Annual Percentage Rate for the billing cycle exceeds the Maximum Annual Percentage Rate we will divide the appropriate Maximum rate by 12 to get the Monthly Periodic Rate for the billing cycle.

11. When Interest Charge Is Imposed.

Cash Advances and Balance Transfers: There is no "free period." An interest charge will be imposed as of the date of each cash advance or balance transfer that you obtain through the use of your card and will continue to accrue until the date of full payment and all billed interest charges have been credited to your account. Such interest will appear on your next statement.

Retail Purchases of Goods and Services: There is a "free period." When the total balance is paid in full within twenty-five (25) days after the statement date (on or before the payment due date), no additional interest charge will be applied to new purchases appearing on the statement. If the new balance is not paid in full each month, within the prescribed time limitation, an interest charge will be imposed on the previous balance and on new purchases as of the date such purchase is posted to your account. Interest will continue to accrue until the date full payment of these items and all billed interest has been credited to your account. Such interest charges will appear on your next statement.

- 12. How We Compute the Balance on which Interest Charges Are Assessed. If payment in full for the entire new balance shown on your statement from the previous billing cycle was received by us within 25 days after the statement date (by the payment due date), new charges appearing on the current statement are excluded from the following calculation: We figure the interest charge on your account by applying the periodic rate to the "average daily balance" of your account (including current transactions). To get the "average daily balance," we take the beginning balance of your account each day, add any new advances or purchases and subtract any payments or credits and any unpaid interest and fees. This gives us the daily balance. Then we add up all the daily balances for the billing cycle and divide by the total number of days in the billing cycle. This gives us the "average daily balance." The "average daily balance" is then multiplied by the periodic rate shown above to determine your periodic interest charge.

- 13. Foreign Transactions. If you use your card to purchase goods or services, or to obtain cash in another country, your statement will reflect the conversion of the foreign currency transaction amount into U.S. dollars. The currency conversion rate used to determine the transaction amount into U.S. dollars may be either a wholesale market rate or government-mandated rate in effect the day Mastercard® processes the transaction, which may differ from the date the transaction occurred or when it is posted to the cardholder's account.
- 14. Liability for Unauthorized Use. You must tell us at once if the card is lost or stolen or you think someone used your account without your permission. We may ask you to pay if someone used the card without your permission. We will not ask you to pay if use of the card without your permission occurs after you notify us that the card is lost or stolen. You may notify us that the card is lost or stolen by calling 1-888-421-4999. Your liability for unauthorized use will not exceed $50.

- 19. We May Cancel the Account. We have the right to cancel the account at any time. You must return the card if we ask you to do so. You may not use the card after we have cancelled the account.
- 20. If You Do Not Pay Us. If you do not pay us the minimum payment due on or before the payment due date, or if you fail to meet any other obligations to us under this Agreement, or if the credit privileges under the Account are misused or used fraudulently, or if any representation in the information regarding your financial affairs you provide to us for the Account proves to be false, or if you become the subject of any bankruptcy or similar proceeding, or if you die, we, without advance notice, can close your Account and declare the entire Account balance due and payable immediately unless such action is precluded by state law. You waive demand, presentment, and notice of intent to accelerate and notice of acceleration. If you do not pay us as agreed, you agree to pay the reasonable collection costs, including any court costs and reasonable attorney fees we incur in enforcing the Agreement.
- 21. Credit Bureau Reporting. We may report information about your account to credit bureaus. Late payments, missed payments, or other defaults on your account may be reflected in your credit report.
- 22. Attorney Fees. If we refer your account to an attorney for collection, we may charge you (in states where permitted by law) for reasonable attorney fees and court costs incurred by us. This paragraph will not be considered a part of this agreement if you live in a state that does not allow us to collect attorney fees and court costs.
- 23. The Provisions of This Agreement Are Separable. If any provision of this agreement is held to be invalid or unenforceable, the rest of this agreement will not be affected.
- 24. Limitation of Our Responsibility. We will not be responsible for merchandise or services purchased by you with the card unless required by law. We will not be responsible for the refusal of any person to honor the card or if you are not able to use the card at an ATM.
- 25. Assignment of Your Account. We may assign your account without obtaining your consent.

- 26. What Law Applies. Texas law, federal law, and other applicable state laws will govern this agreement. These laws will be used to interpret our rights and your obligations under this agreement.
- 27. Credit Reporting Agencies. We may give information about your payment history under this agreement to other persons or companies when permitted by law. YOUR BILLING RIGHTS: KEEP THIS NOTICE FOR FUTURE USE

This notice contains important information about your rights and responsibilities under the Fair Credit Billing Act.

What To Do If You Find A Mistake On Your Statement:

If you think there is an error on your statement, write to us at: Security Service Federal Credit Union, P.O. Box 691550, San Antonio, Texas 78269-1550. In your letter, give us the following information:

- Account information: Your name and account number.
- Dollar amount: The dollar amount of the suspected error.
- Description of problem: If you think there is an error on your bill, describe what you believe is wrong and why you believe it is a mistake.

You must contact us:

- Within 60 days after the error appeared on your statement.
- At least 3 business days before an automated payment is scheduled, if you want to stop payment on the amount you think is wrong.

You must notify us of any potential errors in writing. You may call us, but if you do we are not required to investigate any potential errors and you may have to pay the amount in question.

What Will Happen After We Receive Your Letter

When we receive your letter, we must do two things:

1. Within 30 days of receiving your letter, we must tell you that we received your letter. We will also tell you if we have already corrected the error.
2. Within 90 days of receiving your letter, we must either correct the error or explain to you why we believe the bill is correct.

While we investigate whether or not there has been an error:

- We cannot try to collect the amount in question, or report you as delinquent on that amount.
- The charge in question may remain on your statement, and we may continue to charge you interest on that amount.
- While you do not have to pay the amount in question, you are responsible for the remainder of your balance.
- We can apply any unpaid amount against your credit limit.

After we finish our investigation, one of two things will happen:

- If we made a mistake: You will not have to pay the amount in question or any interest or other fees related to that amount.
- If we do not believe there was a mistake: You will have to pay the amount in question, along with applicable interest and fees. We will send you a statement of the amount you owe and the date payment is due. We may then report you as delinquent if you do not pay the amount we think you owe.

If you receive our explanation but still believe your bill is wrong, you must write to us within 10 days telling us that you still refuse to pay. If you do so, we cannot report you as delinquent without also reporting that you are questioning your bill. We must tell you the name of anyone to whom we reported you as delinquent, and we must let those organizations know when the matter has been settled between us. If we do not follow all of the rules above, you do not have to pay the first $50 of the amount you question even if your bill is correct.

Your Rights If You Are Dissatisfied With Your Credit Card Purchases

If you are dissatisfied with the goods or services that you have purchased with your credit card, and you have tried in good faith to correct the problem with the merchant, you may have the right not to pay the remaining amount due on the purchase. To use this right, all of the following must be true:

1. The purchase must have been made in your home state or within 100 miles of your current mailing address, and the purchase price must have been more than $50. (Note: Neither of these is necessary if your purchase was based on an advertisement we mailed to you, or if we own the company that sold you the goods or services.)
2. You must have used your credit card for the purchase. Purchases made with cash advances from an ATM or with a check that accesses your credit card account do not qualify.
3. You must not yet have fully paid for the purchase.

If all of the criteria above are met and you are still dissatisfied with the purchase, contact us in writing at: Security Service Federal Credit Union, P.O. Box 691550, San Antonio, Texas 78269-1550. While we investigate, the same rules apply to the disputed amount as discussed above. After we finish our investigation, we will tell you our decision. At that point, if we think you owe an amount and you do not pay, we may report you as delinquent.
